

BLOGS // AUTOMATON

Little Soccer Robots Dribble, Kick, Score

POSTED BY: ERICO GUIZZO / MO, JULI 19, 2010

The Darmstadt Dribblers have some of the most impressive humanoid robots in the RoboCup tournament. For the second year in a row, the team from the Technische Universität Darmstadt, Germany, took the title in the kid-size humanoid league (for robots 30-60 centimeters tall). How did they do it? IEEE Spectrum's Harry Goldstein went to RoboCup 2010 in Singapore to find out. Watch the video below to see these amazing little robots playing and also an interview with Dribblers team member Dorian Scholz. Then visit their YouTube channel for more more videos, including this year's kid-size final.

